

Doris Rudischhauser

Consultant

Doris Rudischhauser (1967) has extensive communications and research experience on the corporate as well as the analyst side. Her areas of expertise include capital market communications, with a focus on investor relations, capital market transactions as well as tailored research and financial analysis. She advises private and listed companies, investors, asset managers and family offices. Her sector expertise includes medical technology, industrials, small and mid-caps and real estate. In her function as association manager of the "Verein Investora", Doris Rudischhauser in addition is responsible for the annually recurring small- and mid-cap equity conference Investora Zurich.

Between 2006 and 2010, Doris Rudischhauser was Head of Research at the international financial analysis company Obermatt and was responsible for the project coordination and execution in the area of index-based performance measurement (operative benchmarking). Prior to that, she was a sell-side financial analyst, first at Deutsche Bank, Zurich (1999–2003) and then at Kepler Equities, Zurich (2003–2005), covering medical technology and chemical companies. From 1995 to 1999 she was Head of Investor Relations at Sulzer and Sulzer Medica. Doris Rudischhauser holds a master's degree in Political Science/International Relations from the University of St. Gallen (HSG) and studied an additional semester at New York University's Stern School of Business. She speaks German, English and French.

Zurich office

Mobile +41 79 410 81 88
dru@dynamicsgroup.ch